The HUSBANT Narrative
One wallet to tell the entire story

On Thursday, July 7, 2022 a person who identifies himself as VMU, which is also known as the creator/deployer of the current version of HarryPotterObamaSonic1oInu (the ticker is BITCOIN), scammed a marketing wallet from a contract which he was paid to deploy and create, the stolen marketing wallet belong to a project that was called "UTILITY", which was the world's first triangular token, and that's also it's unique utility.

The owner of this wallet (4c55) is the guy who gathered funds and also paid VMU, to launch and code UTILITY and got the wallet stolen away from him, since VMU deployed UTILITY with his own address, and not the one agreed.

The owner of 4c55 is also an old member of the BITCOIN community, which paid the Island Boys in for the BITCOIN Island Boys collab and have contributed dramatically to the growth of HarryPotterObamaSonic1oInu, his nickname on the old telegram group was "The CEO" and he suffered from continuous bullying.

During his active period on BSC, VMU managed to farm quite enough to deploy and support the version of HarryPotterObamaSonic1oInu you know on ETH.
Back in the days, when BITCOIN was on Binance Smart Chain, there was a big thriving community which most of them are not present today,

It is important to say that most of the old community members were never even notified about the relaunch and the idea was basically stolen – but some of us were always here in the background.

Alongside the UTILITY rug, VMU launched other projects, he did this for a while to accumulate capital and in order to deploy and relaunch the BITCOIN you know today, and here's evidence for how he got the funds.

Among the many tokens on BSC back in the days (and there were a lot),
There was his baby, the source of pride – HUSBANT on Binance Smart Chain.
This is the address of the old HUSBANT contract:

Fundraiser Wallet b3a1 – 0x8a99aa1bb109cd053a4cfcc488772d0ff77bb3a1 [BSC]
The UTILITY token was supposed to be a friendly launch of people who trust each other, and was handled by a wallet that VMU himself made, the following address (0x8a99aa1bb109cd053a4cfcc488772d0ff77bb3a1) functions as the wallet that VMU created for the purpose of the UTILITY fundraiser from the different BITCOIN/DogeBonk community members.

After a while, the UTILITY fundraiser wallet became active again, as a "homage" to the theft of the wallet, and a joke between VMU and his friends, VMU transferred the stolen market wallet funds (1412 BUSD) in this transaction back to the fundraiser b3a1 wallet which he stole:

VMU sent funds equally (117BUSD each) to his friends, to launch a token called "PYRAMID"
Here are the transactions showing VMU sending funds to his friends (and other wallets he own) so they can buy $PYRAMID as a way to laugh and steal the UTILITY idea. (another triangle)

All of the addresses mentioned above also bought $PYRAMID. VMU dumped $PYRAMID as well after a while. It was a project to laugh at the theft incident, to humiliate me personally.

                                                                    12:41

On the left, a message issued by the Telegram Support back in January 31, 2022, to the owner of wallet 4c55, claiming to go against the copyright of Warner Brothers, furtherly confirming and proving his role as a core team in the previous version of HarryPotterObamaSonic1oInu

On the right, a screenshot that got taken from the old Husbant Token group, showing VMU as the dev. We still have an account inside that group even though the access got deleted, and all the data such as images and chats got exported into a folder.
